

Life has been so much more pleasurable since we are not bothered by unsolicited sales pitches interrupting dinner or any other time. We pay extra for an unlisted number and I resent that telemarketers feel they are entitled to come into my home uninvited. I also am handicapped and it is a great imposition to me to rush to answer the phone. I LOVE the NJ law.